CHAPTER II

Ration Card

3. Eligibility for new ration card.- Any citizen of India, who normally resides within the State of West Bengal and is having no ration card anywhere in the country and is eligible for having ration card as per the criteria prescribed by the State Government from time to time may apply for and possess a ration card.

4. Issuance of Ration Card.- (1) The eligible intending applicant shall apply to the Ration Card Issuing Authority in whose jurisdiction his residence falls, in such Form and in such manner as may be specified by the State Government for inclusion of a name.

- (2) The application can be made through either online or offline mode.

In every exceptional cases, where there is no one (Father, Mother, Brother, Sister and Grand Parents) alive available in West Bengal, the Ration Card Issuing Authority after holding a detailed field inquiry and verification of facts of the case, issue a Ration Card to children below 18 years, under RKS-Y-I]

- (4) The Ration Card Issuing Authority after having satisfied himself of the eligibility of the applicant shall approve the application for issuance of a new Ration Card. If the Authority is not satisfied as to the eligibility of the applicant to get a new Ration Card or to the eligibility of the applicant to the category applied for, may reject the application after recording the reason of rejection in the online system.

- (5) Every application so received shall be disposed of within such period as may be specified by State Government from time to time.

- (6) An applicant having denied a ration card shall be at liberty to appeal against such denial to the District Controller, Food and Supplies and the concerned District Controller, Food and Supplies, after examination and also after giving a personal hearing to the applicant shall dispose of the said appeal within fifteen days from the date of filing of such appeal.

5. Activation, Deactivation and Re-activation of Ration Card.- (1) The State Government may specify procedure for linking of Aadhaar number with the ration card and activation of ration card, as the case may be, with detailed guidelines from time to time.

²[(2) Any new ration card issued in terms of this order or any ration card already issued is to be linked with Aadhaar for activation of the Ration Cards and for getting subsidized public distribution commodities. However, for ration cards of children below 5 years Aadhaar number shall be captured, if available and eKYC shall be performed within one year after turning 5 years. However, activation of NFSA ration card depends on availability of category wise quota stipulated in the National Food Security Act or as fixed by the Central Government. So, to maintain transparency, the State Government shall use the First-In First-Out method for issuance of ration card and display a waiting list in the public domain, including on the state web-portal, allowing users to track their application status in real-time:

Provided, that the State Government may priorities eligible vulnerable and needy sections of the society in special circumstances with recorded justification.]
