Sub. : Distribution of subsidised rice @ Rs. 2.00 per Kg to specially identified 131284 poor tribal people equivalent to 113952 A.U.s in 7(seven) Blocks of Birbhum District.

Madam,

The Government has decided to implement a scheme of distribution of subsidized rice @ Rs. 2/- per Kg. to specially identified 131284 poor tribal people equivalent to 113952 A.U.s in seven Blocks bordering to Jharkhand viz. Murarai-I, Nalhati-I, Rampurhat-I, Md. Bazar, Dubrajpur, Rajnagar and Koyrasole of Birbhum District for the period from December, 2013 to March, 2014 in the following manner :

- (1) District Controller, Food and Supplies will arrange for issuance of individual ration cards to the specially identified beneficiaries by the Sub-Divisional Controller, Food and Supplies concerned.
- (2) Sub-Divisional Controller, Food and Supplies will authorize the Food Inspectors of the Block concerned to issue necessary ration card to the listed beneficiaries on observance of all official formalities keeping all records of such issue at the Block level thereby maintaining a ration card register for the purpose. The Block Inspectors are to ensure that each FPS dealer maintain separate register for the purpose.
- (3) Special Ration Cards to be used for this scheme will be the gray coloured family ration card which is already in the possession of the District Controller, Food and Supplies. It will be the duty of the District Controller, Food and Supplies, by blocking the word 'Paaribarik' in the blank ration card by suitable arrangement before delivering the same to the Sub-Controller, Food and Supplies for onward issue to the beneficiaries.
- (4) Special arrangement will have to be made by the District Controller, Food and Supplies / Sub-Divisional Controller, Food and Supplies so that the special ration cards are delivered to the listed beneficiaries before the commencement of the programme.
- (5) Special Ration Card holders under the scheme will be eligible to draw 4 Kg rice and 3 Kg wheat per adult unit per week. Such Ration Card holders under the scheme are allowed to draw fortified atta at the BPL prescribed rate and scale in lieu of BPL wheat where the scheme of distribution of fortified atta is in force. The District Controller, Food and Supplies / Sub-Divisional Controller, Food and Supplies are to ensure that the listed
